- Personal files are company property.
- Access is restricted to Management and HR.
- Employees may review their own file at the office with prior notice and in the presence of HR.
- Employee records are also maintained in the ERP (HR Module).

5.2. Personnel Data Changes

Employees must promptly inform HR of any changes in personal details such as address, phone number, dependents, emergency contact, or educational qualifications.

5.3. Job Descriptions (JD)

Hykon maintains job descriptions for all roles, outlining duties, responsibilities, qualifications, and reporting structure.

JDs are used for recruitment, performance evaluation, and role clarity. However, employees may be assigned additional responsibilities as required.

For any clarification on job roles, employees should contact HR. All JDs are maintained in the ERP HR module.

5.4. Trainings

To improve performance, employees may be required to attend training programs as decided by Management.

Each employee must complete 8 man-days of training per year, including internal, on-the-job, and external programs.

HR will prepare an annual training calendar based on training needs submitted by each department heads.

16. Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace Policy Sexual Harassment

16.1. Objective

Hykon is committed to providing a safe and conducive work environment for all employees, free from sexual harassment. This policy outlines the procedures to prevent, prohibit, and redress any instances of sexual harassment in the workplace

16.2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees (permanent, temporary, contract workers, and trainees), consultants, and any other individuals associated with the Company across all locations

16.3. Definition of Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment includes any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behavior (whether directly or by implication):

- Physical contact and advances.
- A demand or request for sexual favors.
- Making sexually colored remarks.
- Showing pornography.
- Any other unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature

It is essential to emphasize that sexual harassment refers to conduct that is unwanted and unwelcome to the recipient. As this is the crucial factor that distinguishes it from friendly, flirtatious, or other relations that are freely and mutually entered into, it is vital If a woman who has experienced harassment is unable to file a complaint due to physical or mental incapacity, she, or in her absence, her legal heirs or any person authorized by her, shall have the right to submit a complaint directly to the Internal Committee.

16.4. Internal Complaints Committee (ICC)

A complaints committee has been constituted to develop guidelines to combat sexual harassment, violence against women, and ragging at the Company's various locations. The details of the committee are given in Annexure A.

The Complaints Committee shall:

- Receive and inquire about complaints of sexual harassment.
- Deal with cases of sexual harassment against women in a time-bound manner, aiming at ensuring support services to the victimized and termination of the harassment;
- Recommend appropriate punitive action against the guilty party to the Company Management.
- Maintain confidentiality of the identity of the complainant, respondent, and witnesses.
- Submit an annual report to the employer and district officer as law requires

16.5. Procedure for Approaching the Committee

16.5.1. Filing a Complaint

Complaints can be submitted by addressing the Committee in writing at the earliest point 6 copies of a written complaint should be submitted to the Committee or any of its members, along with the list of witnesses and supporting documents within three months from the alleged incident's occurrence. In exceptional circumstances, the ICC may extend the time limit by three additional months.

The complaint shall contain all the material and relevant details concerning the alleged sexual harassment, including the names of the persons involved. Suppose the complainant feels she cannot disclose the identity for any reason. In that case, the complainant shall address the complaint to the HR/Admin Coordinator of the factory/office and hand over the complaint in person or with a sealed cover. Upon receipt of such complaint, the HR Coordinator shall retain the original complaint with him/her. The HR Coordinator shall undertake a comprehensive inquiry into the matter presented within the organization and send the Committee a detailed report of the complaint and other details that might not disclose the complainant's identity.

16.5.2. Redressal Procedure

The Committee shall take immediate necessary action to initiate an inquiry discreetly. The Committee shall, after examination of the complaint, submit its recommendations to the management, recommending a penal action to be imposed.

- The ICC shall conduct a prompt and thorough investigation, following the principles of natural justice.
- Both parties shall be able to be heard and present evidence.
- The inquiry shall be completed within 90 days from the date of the complaint.

Upon receipt of the report from the Committee, the management confirms the penalty recommended after duly following the prescribed procedure after allowing the accused to be heard.

Criminal Proceedings:

If conduct amounts to a specific offence under the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita or any other law, the Company shall initiate appropriate action following the law by making a complaint with the appropriate authority.

The company management shall ensure that the victims or witnesses are not victimized or discriminated against while dealing with complaints of sexual harassment.

If sexual harassment occurs due to an act or omission by any third party or outsider, Hykon shall take all steps necessary and reasonable to assist the affected person in initiating legal action as per any law in force.

16.6. Confidentiality

The identity of the complainant, respondent, and witnesses will be kept confidential. The information related to the inquiry will not be disclosed to anyone not involved in the process

16.7. Malicious Complaints

If the ICC finds that the complaint was made with malicious intent or was false, appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against the complainant, per the Company policy.

16.8. Right to Appeal

Both the complainant and the respondent have the right to appeal against the ICC's recommendations or the action taken by the management. The appeal must be made to the appropriate appellate authority under the relevant laws within 90 days from the date of the recommendations or action.

All complaints and actions taken by the Committee shall be recorded.

16.9. Documentation & Annual Report

The ICC will maintain a complete record of the complaint, inquiry proceedings, evidence, and final report. These records will be kept confidential and stored securely.

The ICC will prepare an annual report summarizing the number of cases filed, their status, and the actions taken. This report will be submitted to the employer and district officer as law requires

16.10. Periodic Review

The Committee shall conduct a quarterly review meeting to evaluate this procedure's effectiveness and make necessary amendments based on feedback and changes in law if required.

16.11. Awareness and Training

Regular awareness programs will be conducted to educate employees about the POSH policy and their rights.

The Company will train ICC members to ensure they are equipped to handle complaints effectively.

17. Employee Conduct & Discipline

17.1. Preface:

This Code of Conduct establishes the expected standards of behaviour for all employees of Hykon. It is intended to ensure integrity, professionalism, discipline, and ethical conduct in all company activities.

17.5. Acknowledgement

All employees must read, understand, and comply with this Code of Conduct and related company policies.

Management shall ensure that employees are informed about:

- Salary and Grade structure
- Performance standards and expectations
- Changes in company policies
- Compensation rules and employee benefits

Management shall also ensure proper employee induction, communication, and grievance resolution mechanisms.

17.6. Standards

Hykon aims to maintain the highest standards of Professionalism, discipline and operational excellence across all departments.

Employees are expected to maintain professional conduct, operational efficiency, and a neat and presentable appearance at all times.

17.7. Residual Misconduct Clause

The acts listed under the Misconduct section are illustrative and not exhaustive. Any act or omission by an employee which is detrimental to the interests, reputation, discipline, safety, or operations of the Company shall also be treated as misconduct, even if such act is not specifically listed in this policy.

The Company reserves the right to take appropriate disciplinary action for any such act based on the seriousness of the offence.

18. Grievance Redressal Policy

Hykon provides a structured system for employees to raise concerns and seek fair resolution. The objective is to maintain a healthy, respectful, and transparent work environment.

Employees are encouraged to openly share concerns related to wages, leave, promotion, transfer, work conditions, treatment by superiors, or any other work-related issue.

18.1. Grievance

A grievance is any complaint or dissatisfaction raised by an employee, either verbally or in writing. A written complaint will be treated as a formal grievance.

A grievance may arise from feelings of injustice related to:

- Wages or mode of payment
- Leave
- Transfer
- Position or promotion
- Treatment by superiors
- Interpretation of Code of Conduct
- Workplace facilities (including food)
- Any other work-related concern affecting an individual or group of employees

This policy ensures every employee has the right to raise concerns and follow a structured procedure for resolution.

Hykon ensures that:

- Employees are treated fairly at all times
- Complaints are handled courteously and promptly
- Clear escalation levels are available if not satisfied
- All grievances are addressed fairly and efficiently

A structured redressal system is in place to ensure transparency, fairness, and compliance with company rules.

18.2. Complaint – Procedure

18.2.1. Step 1

- The employee must first report the grievance to the Immediate Superior.
- The Superior should acknowledge and resolve it within 2–3 working days, depending on the issue.
- If not resolved or not satisfactory, the employee may approach HR (verbally or in writing).
- HR will investigate in coordination with the concerned HOD/Reporting Officer and submit a report to the ED, who will take a decision.

The process remains flexible and transparent. Further investigation may be conducted if required.

18.2.2. Step 2 (If not satisfied with ED's decision)

- The employee may escalate the grievance to the Final Appellate Authority (CMD/ED).
- The CMD/ED may review the case personally or form a committee for final resolution.

19. Legal Compliance & Governance

19.1. Minimum Wages

19.1.1. Entitlement

- No regular employee shall be paid less than the statutory minimum wage.
- Minimum wages will be paid as per the rates applicable in the respective state.

19.1.2. Minimum wage Compliance

- State-specific minimum wage notifications must be strictly followed.
- HR Heads are responsible for keeping updated records of applicable minimum wages for their units.
- Any revision in minimum wages notified by the Government must be implemented immediately by the Company.

19.2. Equal Opportunity & Non-Discrimination

Hykon is committed to providing equal employment opportunities and ensuring that,

- There will be no discrimination based on gender, caste, religion, disability etc.
- All recruitment, promotion and employment decisions shall be based on merit, qualifications, performance and business requirements

19.3. Compliance with Labour Laws

All recruitment, compensation, and employment practices must comply with applicable laws, including:

- Minimum Wages Act, 1948 – Ensures payment of statutory minimum wages as notified by the respective State Government.
- Equal Remuneration Act, 1976 – Prohibits gender-based discrimination in wages.
